CHAPTER I – MEMBERSHIP

SECTION 10. CLASSIFICATION

The members of this Society shall be classified as follows:

Active members
Life members
Student members
Honorary members
Associate members
Retired members

SECTION 20. QUALIFICATIONS

A. ACTIVE MEMBER. A dentist shall be classified as an active member of this Society who (1) is licensed to practice in the State of Texas; or, (2) is engaged as a full-time instructor in an accredited dental school in Texas and not licensed in the State of Texas but is so licensed in any state or territory of the United States of America; (3) is a dental officer serving actively in one of the Federal Dental Services, as defined in the Bylaws of the Texas Dental Association, who is not licensed in the State of Texas but is so licensed in any state or territory of the United States of America, provided such applicant resides or is stationed within the territorial jurisdiction of the Greater Houston Dental Society and, subscribes to and follows the Principles of Ethics and Code of Professional Conduct of the American Dental Association, the Texas Dental Association and the Greater Houston Dental Society. Upon notification by the Secretary-Treasurer of the Texas Dental Association that the license to practice dentistry of an active member has been suspended by the Texas State Board of Dental Examiners, the active membership of such member shall automatically be suspended for the duration of such suspension of his/her license.

Active membership shall cease upon the date and for the period of time the member is not (1) licensed to practice in the State of Texas or (2) a full-time instructor in one of the accredited dental schools in Texas and not licensed to practice in the State of Texas.

Selection to Membership:

a. Application for membership shall be made on the Official Application for Membership of the Texas Dental Association (TDA).

b. A prospective new member shall submit an application form for membership to the Texas Dental Association.

c. The membership staff of the TDA shall provide a quote for dues, in compliance with the TDA Bylaws.

d. Dues for the component, the Texas Dental Association, and the American Dental Association, as indicated on the application, must accompany the application in the form of a check or credit card payment made payable to the Texas Dental Association.

e. The membership staff of the TDA shall process the application according to current procedures.

f. An applicant who has submitted a complete application with dues payment, and who meets the qualifications for membership shall immediately become an active member of the tripartite association upon verification and approval of the membership application by the membership staff of the Texas Dental Association.

Explanatory Note: The term "federal dental services" as used in these Bylaws shall mean the dental departments of the Air Force, the Army, the Navy, the Public Health Service, the Veterans Administration and other federal agencies.
B. LIFE MEMBER. A member in good standing who has been an active and/or retired member in good standing for thirty (30) consecutive years or a total of forty (40) years of active and/or retired membership, as a dues paying member of all states practiced in combined, provided the last twenty (20) of these thirty (30) years having been a dues paying member of this Society and/or the Texas Dental Association and having attained the age of sixty-five (65) years, shall be automatically notified as to eligibility as a life member of this Society. Such applicant shall be a member in good standing at the time of classification as a life member. Maintenance of membership in good standing in the Texas Dental Association and the American Dental Association shall be a requisite for continuance of life membership in this Society.

A dentist who was an active member but subsequently became a student member, shall be entitled to have the year or years of such subsequent membership counted as an active member for the sole purpose of establishing possible later eligibility for life membership.

C. STUDENT MEMBER. (a) A pre-doctoral student attending The University of Texas School of Dentistry at Houston shall be classified as a student member of this Society provided he/she is a Student member in good standing of the American Dental Association and The American Student Dental Association. (b) pre-doctoral graduate student or any dentist eligible for membership in this Society, or any active member of this Society who interrupts his/her active practice and who desires to interrupt his/her active membership who is engaged full time in (1) an advanced training course of not less than one academic years duration in an accredited school or residency program in areas neither recognized by the American Dental Association nor accredited by the Commission on Dental Accreditation of the American Dental Association or (2) a residency program or advanced education program in areas recognized by the American Dental Association and in a program accredited by the Commission on Dental Accreditation of the American Dental Association, provided, in either case, that he/she is a Student member of the American Dental Association during such advanced training or residency program, may be classified as a Student member of this Society in accordance with the provisions of Chapter I, Section 20C of the Bylaws, Texas Dental Association.

D. HONORARY MEMBER. Any individual who has rendered this society a distinguished service may be elected to honorary membership. There shall be no more than two (2) elected during any calendar year. Any active member may propose the conferring of an honorary membership to the Board of Directors and such proposal shall be acted upon by the Board of Directors and elected by a two-thirds (2/3) affirmative vote of the members present and voting at a regular Board meeting.

E. ASSOCIATE MEMBER. A dentist not eligible for active membership in this Society who contributes to the advancement of the objectives of this Society, may become an Associate member upon nomination by the Board of Directors and election by a two-thirds (2/3) affirmative vote of the members present and voting at a regular Board meeting.

F. RETIRED MEMBER. An active member in good standing who has been an active member for twenty-five (25) years or more and is no longer earning income from the performance of service as a member of the faculty of a dental school, as a dental administrator, or consultant or as a practitioner of any activity for which a license to practice dentistry or dental hygiene is required by the State of Texas may be Classified as a retired member upon application to the Secretary of this Society and upon proof of qualification. To qualify for retired membership status, the active member shall submit an affidavit attesting to his/her retirement to the Secretary of this Society, in accordance with the provisions of Chapter I, Section 20F, of the Bylaws, Texas Dental Association. Maintenance of active or retired membership in good standing in this Society shall entitle such member to all the privileges of an active member.

SECTION 30. DEFINITION OF “IN GOOD STANDING”

A member of this Society whose dues for the current year have been paid shall be in good standing; provided, however, that a member in good standing who is under a disciplinary sentence of suspension imposed by the Society or as provided in Chapter II, Section 30C, of the Bylaws, Texas Dental Association shall be designated as a "member in good standing temporarily under suspension" until such disciplinary sentence has terminated.

The requirement of paying current component dues does not apply to a TDA Life Member Retired for the purpose of determining their good standing in this Society. A member of this Society receiving assistance from the American Dental Association Relief Fund and/or the Relief Fund of the Texas Dental Association shall be exempt from payment of dues and shall be in good standing during the period of such assistance.

A member of this Society who has suffered hardship due to a catastrophe or a medical illness or is totally disabled for a period of one year and who is unable to engage in the duties of the dental profession and who is a member in good standing at the time total disability was incurred, shall be exempt from the payment of dues and shall be in good standing during the period of total disability or hardship. A written request for waiver of dues, along with supporting financial documentation, shall be submitted to the secretary, and considered by the Board. With Board approval, the secretary of this said Society shall notify the secretary of TDA of such disability or hardship.

A totally disabled member, other than one totally disabled during active military service, in order to receive entitlement to dues exemption shall submit to this component Society a medical certificate attesting total disability. During the period of exemption from dues, further certificates shall be presented on request to this Society.

SECTION 40. PRIVILEGES

A.  ACTIVE MEMBER. An active member in good standing shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges of membership including, but not limited to, the right to vote, hold office, attend all meetings of this Society, the Texas Dental Association and the American Dental Association. He/she shall receive all publications furnished to members through this Society, the Texas and American Dental Associations.

An active member under disciplinary sentence of suspension shall not be privileged to hold office, either elective or appointive, including delegate and alternate delegate, in the Society, the Texas and American Dental Associations, or to vote or otherwise participate in the selection of officials of this Society, the Texas and American Dental Associations. A sentence of suspension shall not abrogate any contractual relations between the disciplined member and a third party.

B.  LIFE MEMBER. A life member, as defined by the Texas Dental Association, shall be entitled to all the privileges of an active member except (if applicable) that Life-Retired shall not receive the publications of this society, except by subscription.

C.  STUDENT MEMBER. A student member in good standing shall be entitled to attend any scientific session of this Society for which a fee would not be charged an active member and such other services as are authorized by Resolutions passed by the membership of this Society or by these Bylaws. Student members shall not be eligible to vote or hold office in this Society.

D.  HONORARY MEMBER. An Honorary member shall enjoy the rights and privileges of an active member except the right to vote or hold office or maintain membership in the Texas and/or American Dental Associations solely because of affiliation with this Society.

E.  ASSOCIATE MEMBER. An Associate member in good standing shall receive the publications of this Society.
The associate member shall be entitled to attend any scientific session of this Society and such other services as are authorized by Resolutions passed by the membership of this Society or by these Bylaws but shall not be eligible to vote or hold office in this Society.

F. RETIRED MEMBER. A retired member shall be entitled to all the privileges of an active member, including, when applicable, as provided by the provisions in Chapter I, Sections 40 and 60, Bylaws, Texas Dental Association

SECTION 50. DUES

A. COMPONENT DUES AMOUNT.

1. Active Members. The annual base dues of active members shall be $350 plus the approved dues of the TDA and ADA.

2. Life Members.

3. Life-Practicing: The annual dues shall be 50% of active member dues.

4. Life-Retired: Member that does not hold an active dental license shall be exempt from dues.

5. Student Members. There shall be no dues for student members

6. Honorary Members. The Honorary Member shall be exempt from payment of all dues and assessments.

7. Associate Members. The annual dues shall be the same as those of Active Members.

8. Retired Members. The annual dues shall be 10% of active member dues.

B. PAYMENT. The manner of payment of dues shall be in accordance with the policy of the Texas Dental Association and the American Dental Association, and due on January 1 of each year.

Student members making application for active membership within the year of their graduation or completion of a residency or graduate work and fulfilling all other requirements for membership may be accepted without payment of additional dues for the remainder of the current year of graduation and the succeeding year. The payment of dues shall begin after the first full year of active membership immediately following graduation from a dental school, graduate program, or residency/advanced training of not less than one academic year’s duration (providing that these programs were commenced immediately upon graduation from dental school or interrupted active membership) shall be in accord with Chapter I, Sections 70A and 70C, Bylaws, Texas Dental Association.

All members, except life-retired and honorary, elected to membership for the first time, and who are elected after July 1, shall pay one-half (1/2) the current year’s dues; and who are elected after October 1, shall pay one-quarter (1/4) of the current year’s dues subject to the provisions of Chapter I, Section 60 Ad, Bylaws, Texas Dental Association; except that a student member, upon classification as an active member by this Society shall pay no further dues for the remainder of the calendar year in which the member was entitled to the benefits of student membership.

Active members on temporary duty with the armed forces of the United States shall be exempt from payment of dues to this Society until the calendar year succeeding his/her return. After five years in the armed forces, such member is no longer exempt from payment of dues of this Society, except as otherwise provided in these Bylaws.

C. ASSESSMENTS. Assessments may be levied by a two-thirds (2/3) affirmative vote of the members present and voting at any regular or special meeting called for that purpose, if there is a quorum present, provided such assessment proposal is voted upon at a meeting after which it was introduced and has been published in the Journal and the membership notified by an appropriate method as approved by the Board of Directors.
D. LOSS OF MEMBERSHIP AND REINSTATEMENT. Any member whose dues for the calendar year are not paid by March 31 shall be automatically suspended from membership. Any one so suspended may be reinstated at any time before the next annual session of the State Association.

An active member whose dues assessments have not been paid by March 31 of the current year shall cease to be a member of the Society.

A former active member of this Society upon being re-elected to active membership shall be required to pay the full year's dues and assessments.

Reinstatement to membership in this Society shall be in accordance with the policies established by the Texas Dental Association in its Bylaws.

SECTION 60. MEETING OF MEMBERS

A. REGULAR MEETINGS. The regular meetings of the Society shall be held in accordance with the schedule set by the Programs and Sponsorship Committee at the annual organizational meeting with the approval of the Board of Directors.

B. SPECIAL MEETINGS. Special meeting of the members of this Society shall be called by the President or upon the direction of a majority of the Directors or upon a written request of fifty (50) active, life or retired members. A notice of the purpose, time and place of this meeting shall be sent to all members not less than five (5) days prior to the date set. Only business pertaining to the call shall be considered unless approved by two-thirds of those in attendance and eligible to vote.

C. QUORUM. Forty (40) active, life or retired members of this Society shall be necessary to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting, except as otherwise provided in these Bylaws.

CHAPTER II – BOARD OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 10. COMPOSITION OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The authorized number of directors of the Society shall be thirteen (13). All directors must be active, life or retired members in good standing of this Society. The Board of Directors shall be constituted as follows: President, President-Elect, 1st Vice President, 2nd Vice President, Secretary-Treasurer, the Editor (who shall serve without vote), the Immediate Past President, and six (6) directors. A student member representative from The University of Texas School of Dentistry at Houston shall be invited to attend all Board meetings. The student member representative shall have the privilege of the floor but shall not have the right to vote.

SECTION 20. MEETINGS AND BUSINESS

A. TRANSACTION OF BUSINESS. The Board of Directors may transact the routine business of the Society, referring to the Society for its consideration and action in such matters as its judgment deserves. They may authorize disbursement of funds and in so doing shall act for the Society and shall not be held personally liable.

To the fullest extent permitted by law, the Board of Directors and other governing or working bodies may hold and participate in meetings and voting by means of telephonic, electronic, video or other communication facility that permits all participants to communicate adequately with each other during the meeting. A person participating in a meeting by such means is deemed for the purposes of this Bylaw to be present at the meeting.
B. REGULAR MEETINGS. The Board of Directors shall meet monthly unless otherwise specified by the President and approved by the Board of Directors.

C. SPECIAL MEETINGS. The Board of Directors shall meet at the call of the President or upon the call of any three (3) members of the Board, providing that due notice is given to each Board member ten (10) days in advance of the meeting time, with statement of the business to be considered. Only business pertaining to the call may be considered except by approval by two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Board. With approval by two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Board, the preceding ten (10) day notice in advance of the meeting time may be waived.

SECTION 30. QUORUM

Seven members shall constitute a quorum and any action receiving a majority approval shall be binding.

SECTION 40. VACANCY ON THE BOARD

In the event an officer or a director prematurely vacates his/her position, and it is not otherwise specified in the Bylaws, the Board of Directors shall appoint a successor to the office for the remainder of the term.

SECTION 50. POWERS

The Board of Directors shall be the administrative (managing) body of the Society, vested with full power:

A. To conduct, manage and control the affairs and business of the Society and to propose rules, regulations and policies consistent with the Articles of Incorporation of this Society or its Bylaws for considerations by the membership of the Society.

B. To manage the financial affairs of the Society, upon affirmative vote of a majority of the members of the Board present in person.

C. To remove from office any officers or committee member for cause in his/her office upon a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Board of Directors.

D. To nominate honorary members for election by the membership.

E. To approve a budget for carrying on the activities of the Society for each ensuing fiscal year.

F. To direct the President, by majority vote, to call a special meeting of the members.

G. To establish ad interim policies between meetings of the members when such policies are essential to the management of the Society, provided, however, that all such policies must be presented for review at the next meeting of the members.

H. To determine the date and place for convening each annual installation of officers meeting and provide for the management and general arrangements for each of these meetings.

I. To establish rules and regulations consistent with these Bylaws to govern its organization and procedure and the organization and procedure of the various offices and agencies of the Society.

J. To cause to be bonded by a surety company all officers and employees of the Society entrusted with Society funds.

K. To provide guidelines and directions to govern the Treasurer’s custody, investment and disbursement of Society funds.

L. To vote upon members of appointive and special committees as proposed by the President.

M. To appoint the Executive Director of the Society.

N. To appoint a successor for the remainder of the term in the event an officer or director prematurely vacates his/her position as specified in Chapter II, Sec 40 of these Bylaws.

SECTION 60. ELECTION AND TERM OF OFFICE

A. ELECTION. The election of Officers, Directors, Delegates, Alternate Delegates, and the Elected Committees shall occur at a regular or special meeting or, at the discretion of the Board, by other means including, but not limited to regular mail or electronic mechanism, and as provided in Chapter V, Section 20 of the Bylaws, no later than the last meeting of the calendar year. If there are more than one nominee for any of the elected positions, a majority vote by written ballot shall be required to be elected to each contested position. If there are more than two nominees and none receive a majority of the vote, the nominee with the least number of votes shall be dropped from the ballot and the vote repeated until one candidate receives a majority. After all contested positions have been elected, the remaining slate of nominees shall be elected by majority vote.

B. TERM OF OFFICE. The term of office of Officers and the Editor shall be for one year or until their successors are elected and qualified. The term of office for Directors shall be for two (2) years and such Directors may serve no more than two (2) consecutive full two (2) year terms.

All members of the society Judicial Committee must have attended a training session by the TDA before they assume their duties, and the Chair shall certify annually to the TDA that all Peer Review and Judicial Committee members have been trained by the TDA. Each Chair must have attended a TDA training session within the last four years and all society committee members must have attended a TDA training session within the last eight years.

SECTION 20. NOMINATING COMMITTEE
The Nominating Committee shall consist of the President, President-Elect and the Immediate Past President who shall serve for one year and four (4) members to be elected by the membership to serve alternating four-year terms, one of whom shall be elected each year. The Chair shall be the elected committee member serving the fourth year of their term.

The Nominating Committee shall present at least one nominee for each elective office and all elective committee positions with the exception of the Nominating Committee position. The slate of nominees shall be presented to the membership at a regular or special meeting or, at the discretion of the Board, by other means including, but not limited to, regular mail, electronic mail, or publication in the Journal. If the slate of nominees is presented in a manner other than at a regular or special meeting, the manner shall be such that the entire membership has the opportunity to receive the information. The report of the Nominations Committee shall be presented to the membership no later than 60 days prior to the date of voting.

Nominations for the Nominating Committee position and any other elective position may be made from the floor at any regular or special meeting or by other method, including but not limited to electronic submission subsequent to the report of the Nominating Committee to the membership up to 30 days prior to the date of voting. The election shall be held in accordance with Chapter II, Section 60, of these Bylaws.

SECTION 30. PEER REVIEW COMMITTEE
The Peer Review Committee shall be a rotating committee of an appropriate number of members as deemed necessary by the Chair and Nominating Committee to carry out the functions and duties of the committee. Each member shall be elected to the committee for a 3-year term. The Chair shall be nominated by the Nominations Committee and will appear on the slate of officers to be elected by the membership in accordance with Chapter V, Section 20 of these Bylaws. CHAPTER XI – EMERGENCY PROVISIONS

A. DEFINITION OF EMERGENCY. An emergency shall be declared to exist if a majority of the Board of Directors or a quorum of membership cannot readily participate in a meeting due to a catastrophic event.

B. EMERGENCY PROVISIONS. For the duration of a declared emergency, the following provisions shall be in effect.

1. Transfer of Power: If an emergency is declared to exist, any and all powers reserved for the membership shall be transferred to the Board of Directors only for the duration of such emergency.
2. Transaction of Business: A meeting of the board of Directors may be called by the President or any two members of the board upon a one-hour notice by telephonic or electronic means. Twenty-five percent (25%) of the voting members of the Board shall constitute a quorum.

3. Amendment of the Bylaws: These Bylaws may be amended by a majority vote of the Board of Directors providing a quorum is present; such amendment(s) shall only be effective for the duration of the emergency.

C. EFFECT OF ACTION TAKEN: Any action taken in good faith in accordance with these emergency provisions shall be binding upon the Society and its members unless provided for otherwise.

CHAPTER XII – RULES OF ORDER

The current edition of the American Institute of Parliamentarians Standard Code of Parliamentary Procedure shall govern deliberations of this Society when not in conflict with its Bylaws.

CHAPTER XIII – AMENDMENTS

These bylaws may be amended or repealed by a two-thirds (2/3) affirmative vote of the members present and voting at a regular or special meeting or at the discretion of the Board, by other means including, but not limited to regular mail or electronic mechanisms, provided further, that such amendment was read to the membership at a regular or special meeting or, at the discretion of the Board, publicized to the membership by other means including, but not limited to, regular mail, electronic mail, or publication in the Journal at least thirty (30) days prior to the voting date. If the proposed amendment is publicized in a manner other than reading at a regular meeting, the manner shall be such that the entire membership has the opportunity to receive the information. Any proposition to alter or amend these Bylaws must be submitted in writing to the Board of Directors, by ten (10) members in good standing, prior to their consideration by the membership.

When the society receives notification from ADA or TDA that they require specific language changes, additions, deletions, or other modification to the society Bylaws, the society will make those changes without prior presentation to or vote by the membership provided that the changes are limited to only those required to eliminate conflicts with the TDA or ADA Bylaws due to changes to those documents and such changes to be reported to the membership.
